Deviations From Standard Time[1]

The U.S. is on daylight saving time from the first Sunday in April @ 2am til the last Sunday in October @ 2am.

Western Europe is on daylight saving time generally from the last Sunday in March to the last Sunday in September, but the United Kingdom continues until the last Sunday in October.

The Soviet Union lies over 11 time zones, but maintains its standard times 1 hour fast of the zone designation. Additionally, it proclaims daylight saving time as does Europe.

India's standard is at +05:30.

China lies across 5 time zones, but the whole country is placed on zone time +08 hours with daylight saving time from April 12 to September 12.

Many of the countries in the Southern Hemisphere maintain daylight saving time generally from October to March, but most countries near the equator do not deviate from standard time.
